The screenshot shows the AUTOBID dashboard for a user named James Bond. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the AUTOBID logo, 'Dashboard', and 'Auction' links. A user profile icon is in the top right. Below the navigation, a greeting says 'Good Morning, James Bond!' with a sub-header 'Stay on top of your bidding activities for today'. To the right is a small image of a blue car. Below this is a notification bar with a bell icon and a shopping cart icon showing '0'. The main content area is divided into several sections: 'Upcoming Biddings' (with a 'View >' link), a summary row with 'Total Bids Placed: 0', 'Won Bids: 0', and 'Faqs: 0', and a 'Bid History' section. The 'Bid History' section has a table with columns for 'Vehicle Name', 'Starting Bid Amount', 'Your Bid Amount', and 'Date', but it is currently empty with the message 'No bid records available.' Blue arrows from the text on the left point to these specific elements on the dashboard.

The screenshot shows the 'Vehicle Auction' dashboard on the AUTOBID website. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the AUTOBID logo, 'Dashboard', and 'Auction' links. A search bar and a 'Status' dropdown menu are located in the top right corner. The main content area displays three vehicle listings, each with a 'New' badge in the top right corner. The first listing is a red Geely car with a starting bid of ₱900,000.00, starting on February 27, 2025, and ending on March 05, 2025. The second listing is a silver Ford pickup truck with a starting bid of ₱860,000.00, starting on February 27, 2025, and ending on March 04, 2025. The third listing is a blue Suzuki car with a starting bid of ₱780,000.00, starting on February 24, 2025, and ending on March 08, 2025. Each listing includes a 'Details' button and a 'PLACE BID' button. Blue arrows point from the text on the left to the 'Status' dropdown, the search bar, the 'Details' button of the Geely car, and the 'PLACE BID' button of the Geely car.
